

How to Use the Richmond Travel, Accident & Sickness Insurance While Abroad

Before you travel abroad, you will receive a travel assistance card and an insurance coverage certificate (if a visa is required). Richmond faculty, staff, and students are covered by Chubb travel, accident, and sickness insurance when traveling for university business or UR-sponsored educational programs. Detailed coverage information is available on our website. Be sure to review the insurance benefits and exclusions before departure. Chubb Insurance typically operates on a reimbursement basis. Retain all receipts.

COMMON TERMS:

On Call International = Travel assistance provider HSR = Claim processor Chubb = Insurance company

GETTING HELP ABROAD:

1. Contact On Call International, the Chubb travel assistance provider. On Call staff will answer your questions and can assist you with the services listed below.

On Call Phone: +1-800-406-3831 (inside the U.S.) or +1-978-237-0279 (outside the U.S.)

On Call Email: Mail@OnCallInternational.com

NOTE: Policy benefits marked  below MUST be preauthorized by Chubb and arranged by On Call.

- referral to the closest medical facility and/or provider
- medical monitoring by board-certified emergency physicians in the United States
- help arrange for the replacement of prescription medication that is lost or unexpectedly needed
- urgent message relay between family, personal physician, school, and insured
- guaranteeing payment to the provider (if admitted to the hospital) and coordinating insurance benefits (when necessary)
- referral to legal aid (*does not pay for legal fees)
- providing telephonic interpretation services in all major languages in cases of emergency
- advice for passport replacement in case of loss or theft
- arranging an emergency reunion with a family member if hospitalized or a victim of a felony
- arranging transportation needs for a trip interruption
- arranging and coordinating emergency medical evacuation, security evacuation, repatriation, or return of remains

When contacting On Call, include the following details:

- Your full name and your date of birth (DD/MMM/YYYY)
 - UR's Chubb policy number: Located on the Chubb Travel Assistance ID card provided by the Center for Global Engagement.
 - You are a University of Richmond student or staff member on a school-sponsored or business trip
 - Dates and location of travel (city, country)
 - The physical address and mobile number where you can be reached
 - Written (or verbal) permission to discuss your case with a family member in the US (if you wish to do so). Include the person's name, mobile/email, and their relationship to you.
 - Explain the assistance you need
 - Request a case number.
2. You will be given a case number from the On Call travel assistance coordinator. *Keep this case number for future reference. Make a note of the name of the person who helped you, along with the date/time of your call or email.
 3. Unless you are hospitalized, you may need to pay medical expenses at the time of service and then file a claim for reimbursement. You can request On Call to pay the healthcare provider abroad directly. *This is not always possible.

HOW TO FILE A CLAIM FOR REIMBURSEMENT

1. Within 90 days of each incident (illness/accident, trip delay, baggage loss, etc.) contact the Health Special Risk (HSR) Claims Administrator at ACEclaims@HSRI.com and submit a claim form (linked here). If you have questions about the claim form or need a different claim form, email HRS and include the following details :
 - Your full name, date of birth (DD/MMM/YYYY), mailing address, email address, and phone number
 - UR's Chubb policy number (and On Call case number, if you have one)
 - Purpose of travel, specific location of accident/incident, and dates of your trip, and that you were on a university-sponsored trip (business or study abroad)

- Include a description of the incident for which you are filing a claim for (e.g., trip delay, medical bill, baggage loss, etc.)
- Include original receipts (hotel bills, airline fees, prescriptions, medical bills). *It is ok if your medical bills and/or receipts are in a foreign currency and/or not in English.
- If it is a claim for accident or sickness, include the doctor's note with the diagnosis and treatment. Your full name should be on this note.

2. Submit your completed claim form and documentation by email to Health Special Risk (HSR) at ACEclaims@HSRI.com within 90 days of the accident/incident to expedite the processing of the claim
 - Check your voicemail and emails regularly for updates or questions
 - Keep copies of all documents for your records

Important note: Claims may take up to 30 days to process from the date all required, complete information is received. If any information is missing or additional documentation is needed, you will be notified in your Explanation of Benefits (EOB). The EOB will list what is required. It is imperative to follow the instructions and submit any outstanding items promptly.

Once the claim is processed, payment is usually issued to the claimant by check and mailed to the address provided on the claim form unless otherwise requested. Your EOB will also describe the services billed and what was covered. Any amounts not covered will be explained on the EOB.

3. Follow up with HSR to request a status update and/or with any questions 1-2 weeks after submitting your claim:

HSR Phone: +1-800-328-1114 (inside the U.S.) or +1-972-512-5600 (outside the U.S.)

HSR Email: ACEclaims@HSRI.com

ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE

Questions about policies and benefits?

Contact the Office of Risk Management at risk@richmond.edu.

Need a replacement travel assistance card or insurance certificate?

Notify the Center for Global Engagement at studyabroad@richmond.edu or call +1-804-289-8836.